Sources of Additional Information

Graduate Work in Communication Studies

For additional information about the program, admissions and degree requirements, or teaching assistantships, contact:

Brian Richardson, Ph.D., Director of Graduate Studies
Department of Communication Studies
1155 Union Circle #305268
Denton, TX  76203-5017

Email:  Brian.Richardson@unt.edu
Web:  http://communication.unt.edu/graduate-studies-overview
Phone:  940.565.4748
Fax:  940.565.3630

North Texas Performance Studies Program

For additional information regarding the Performance Studies Program contact:

Justin Trudeau, Ph.D.
Department of Communication Studies
1155 Union Circle #305268
Denton, TX  76203-5017

Email:  Justin.Trudeau@unt.edu
Web:  http://communication.unt.edu/student-activities/performance-interest-group
Phone:  940.565.3526
Fax:  940.565.3630

North Texas Debate Program

For additional information regarding the North Texas Debate Program, contact:

Brian Lain, Ph.D., Director of Debate
Department of Communication Studies
1155 Union Circle #305268
Denton, TX 76203-5017

Email:  Brian.Lain@unt.edu
Web:  http://communication.unt.edu/student-activities/debate
Phone:  940.565.4534
Fax:  940.565.3630
International Students

International students seeking admission to the graduate program in communication studies should communicate directly with the International Studies and Programs Office.

International Studies and Programs
1155 Union Circle #311067
Denton, TX 76203-5017

Email: international@unt.edu
Web: http://www.international.unt.edu
Phone: 940.565.2197
Fax: 940.565.4822

International Studies and Programs assumes responsibility for all aspects of the application and admissions processes, including application to the Toulouse School of Graduate Studies, immigration issues, financial aid, and admission to graduate study in communication studies.