Students who enroll in upper division COMM courses not on this list and students who enroll in multiple upper division courses while taking COMM 3010 will be dropped administratively from those courses without notice.

To be clear:

- Students cannot take more than one 2000-level Communication Studies and COMM 3010 at the same time.
- Students taking their last pre-major course and COMM 3010 at the same time cannot enroll in any upper level COMM course.
- Students cannot enroll in more than one upper level course at the same time they are enrolled in COMM 3010.
- Students who enroll in COMM 3010 and one upper level course must choose from the following list only: 3120, 3260, 3265, 3320, 3720, 3760, 3840, 3860, 3920.

Students majoring in Communication Studies:

- Are required to complete 39 hours of courses in communication studies as prescribed above;
- Are required to earn a minimum grade of “C” in all COMM courses to graduate;
- Must observe prerequisites for each COMM course. If a student registers for a course and has not completed prerequisites for the course with a grade of “C” or better, the student is subject to being dropped from the course without notice. Prerequisites are listed with individual course descriptions in the catalog.

NOTE: Because of high demand for many COMM courses, students who do not attend on the first class day without prior consent of the instructor may be dropped by the instructor in favor of other students who attend the first class day in hope of being added. It is the student’s responsibility to secure prior consent of the instructor.

Unofficial Student Checklist

Listed below are all courses (by category) that satisfy the University Core Curriculum and College of Arts and Sciences Core Curriculum requirements. You need 120 hours to graduate. Generally speaking, a course used to satisfy one core requirement may not be used to satisfy another university or college core requirement. A course from the major, however, can fulfill a core requirement as well as a university and/or a college core requirement. Courses that can be used to fulfill the requirement in question are included in parentheses
