

Are you looking for an exciting internship? Looking to be a part of growing a company's brand? EES Consulting goal is to be a leader in the environmental consulting industry by providing cost-effective solutions for all environmental needs.

EES Consulting's internship program offers a diverse opportunity to work and gaining hands-on experience. This rigorous program ensures the opportunity for students to enhance new skills, obtain real-world experience, gain specific field-related exposure, and make important connections for the future. Our internship is willing to work with your class schedule.

Job Description and Responsibilities:

- Working primarily supporting the marketing content
- Ability to perform tasks that include but not limiting to blogs, marketing content, web based communications, etc.
- Ability and willingness to perform clerical functions as needed
- Willingness to learn different areas within the organization
- Work on different projects within the department as well as team projects

Website: <https://eesresponse-consulting.com/>

To apply

Email your resume to a.grossman@eesresponse-consulting.com