Minor Requirements

Communication Studies Majors are required to have a minor. Most minors consist of 18-21 hours of coursework. There are a variety of very interesting minors available. Please see the 2015-2016 Undergraduate Catalog for a complete list of minors.

Students Majoring in Communication Studies:

- 1) Are required to complete 39 hours of courses in communication studies as prescribed above. 27 of those hours must be advanced (3000-4000 level)
- 2) Are required to earn a minimum grade of "C" in all COMM courses to graduate;
- 3) Must observe prerequisites for each COMM course. If a student registers for a course and has not completed prerequisites for the course with a grade of "C" or better, the student is subject to being dropped from the course without notice. Prerequisites are listed with individual course descriptions in the catalog.
- 4) Are required to complete a Minor

NOTE: Because of high demand for many COMM courses, students who do not attend on the first class day without prior consent of the instructor may be dropped by the instructor in favor of other students who attend the first class day in hope of being added. It is the student's responsibility to secure prior consent of the instructor.

Unofficial Student Checklist

Listed below are all courses (by category) that satisfy the University Core Curriculum and College of Arts and Sciences Core Curriculum requirements. You need 120 hours to graduate. Generally speaking, a course used to satisfy one core requirement may not be used to satisfy another university or college core requirement. A course from the major, however, can fulfill a core requirement as well as a university and/or a college core requirement. Courses that can be used to fulfill the requirement in question are included in parentheses
